From the Directors:

Well hi again everyone! It seems not a year goes by that I find myself directing another show for Barnstormers. This year we have Calamity Jane. It is a “rip roaring” cowboy musical based on the 1953 film with Doris Day and Howard Keel. The stage production has all your favourite songs, plus a few more. Hopefully we have given it a new life and flavour that both lovers of the film and newcomers to the show will love.

Calamity Jane is a show I have also had the great pleasure of appearing in previously, so when we were searching for a show I had no hesitation in suggesting it. I really wanted to be in it and, because it’s a show with a lot of parts for men, I felt that really there was no choice other than to use every man we have, in some way or another – including me! (I have actually managed to get on stage quite a lot in this one). This of course is not without its problems as directing and being in something is a difficult balancing act. And to that end for this show we have formed a new Creative Team. Karen Knight agreed to co-direct as well as prompting and has been a “rock” at my side during all of our trials and tribulations as we rehearse. Also, we have a new choreography team, Amber Harrington (also running back-stage) has been ably assisted by Claire Fowler and Laura Carey (who both appear as cast in the show).

They have created some new exciting movement for us all and have been brilliant right from the outset. There is also our costume department Christine Ashby, Angie Webb and Philip Davis (who was also persuaded to appear as “Doc”) and they have come up with some magnificent costumes as always. Finally, we have Hannah Pool returning to us as MD. She has brilliantly juggled her real life shift work as a doctor, and has certainly come up with the right prescription for this show. That is not to mention all the others in the cast and crew who have put in a brilliant effort with lots of hard work and dedication to bring us another “Barnstorming Musical” – I hope you all enjoy it!

Gary Robertson, Co-Director

I have been connected to Barnstormers for over 14 years. During my time I have been on stage, a chaperone, lighting assistant, make-up artist, prompt and production assistant. This new role as co-director has been a chance to cross something else off my bucket list.

When Gary asked me to co-direct I really didn’t know what I was in store for over the next few months!

Barnstormers for me is more than just putting on a show. It’s about the Barnstormers family, the way we are there for each other. Laughter, tears, hugs and caring is something that I treasure.

Thank you to all our team for being special friends both on and off stage.

I hope you enjoy our show and feel the “Barnstormers magic” xxx

Karen Knight, Co-Director

A Word from the MD 🎵 🎵 🎵

Calamity Jane has been part of my musical life from childhood. Our "Hello Children Everywhere" cassette tapes (revealing my age) included the songs 'Deadwood Stage', 'Secret Love', 'Windy City' and 'Black Hills of Dakota' – the lyrics to these are imprinted in my mind. Later, my Great Uncle and I would watch the fabulous Doris Day film together during my visits. Having the opportunity to teach some of my favourite songs has been very special and the cast have risen to the challenges posed by the music and the limited rehearsal time we have had together. As always, I am thankful to the band who give up their time to bring the score to life and particularly to Russell, who has been able to support the cast during rehearsals while I have been working (literally flying in from the Windy City on one occasion to do so). I hope that you love the music as much as I do.

Stepping up ...

Having the opportunity to choreograph for Calamity Jane, especially as a trio, has been fantastic. Laura accepted the challenge of choreographing the iconic number 'Secret Love' as well as 'Adelaide', 'Higher than a Hawk' and 'Love you Dearly'. These musical numbers are pivotal for the characters' developing relationships but are slower, with demanding vocals, which can therefore be quite difficult to choreograph - she's done a fantastic job!

Claire wanted to choreograph some all-cast numbers including 'Deadwood Stage', 'Men!' and 'Black Hills of Dakota'. Claire was keen to include lots of effective armography into her routines and has taught the cast to 'whip-crack-away' like professionals! Claire is also responsible for 'A Woman's Touch' exposing Calamity's femininity and growing friendship with Katie. These are just a few of the numbers added to her growing list of choreography repertoire.

I have loved the chance to teach the cast who have thrown themselves into the choreography with gusto, enthusiasm and positivity. 'Windy City' was a big favourite with me and the cast with some fun partner moves and thigh slapping-clapping! I have particularly enjoyed teaching 'Keep It Under Your Hat' and 'Everyone Complains About The Weather' but all the songs have been fun and presented their own challenges. 'I Can Do Without You' looks effortlessly entertaining but is extremely fiddly and quick which is difficult to perfect whilst also singing beautifully.

The cast involved have been extremely dedicated to perfecting the routines and have worked very hard. It certainly shows in their smiles on stage. I also want to thank them for their patience and praise when working with us, after our beloved choreographer Margaret Taylor stepped down from her role last show. I know that you will be just as impressed as we are proud. I hope that watching the numbers will bring you as much joy as it brings all of us.

Amber Harrington, *Choreographer
