From the Directors

When we agreed to direct panto we were really keen to choose a non Princess-led story. After reading lots of scripts, Treasure Island seemed an ideal choice as there was plenty of opportunity for the cast to harness their inner pirate.

It's been a pleasure undertaking a tour of the local garden centre cafes for panto planning meetings between us two joint directors and our musical director Panos, because we love coffee and cake and the odd six hour meeting! "Oh yes we do!", "Oh no we don't!". But seriously although an awful lot of behind-the-scenes work goes into it, it has been a joy to see the panto come to life, week by week in the rehearsal process. This is Mark's first directing experience and we have tried a few new ideas - working with the principals, individually, to help them develop their characters, and having a smaller set of core dancers to give a new approach to the big group numbers.

We have also had great fun choosing the musical numbers and hope you enjoy them as much as we do.

The cast have worked incredibly hard to bring the story to life and really embraced the chance to be bad guys for a change. You are in for an entertaining time.

So, why are pirates called pirates? Because they Aaaar.

Paula Steel and Mark Lambert

From the Musical Director

Panos is "super excited" and honoured to be Musical Director at Barnstormers for the first time. "It has been a privilege to work alongside co-directors Paula and Mark, and with the amazing cast and crew of Treasure Island Panto, and of course, with the incredibly talented Barnstormers band! Also, a huge thank you to resident MD Russell Taylor for giving me the opportunity."

Panos has previously performed on stage with Barnstormers since "Legally Blonde - The Musical", and has also performed with Seaford Musical Theatre and Ignite Theatre (based in Seaford and Newhaven, respectively), and will be playing the part of "Baloo" in Ignite Theatre's performances of "The Jungle Book Story" in December.

Panos holds a degree in music from Goldsmiths' College - University of London, where he majored in voice, specialising in Jazz, Pop & Musical Theatre genres, and has studied under Kenneth Woolham (RCM), Louise Gibbs (Jazz) and Diana Stuart. Prior to doing musical theatre, he performed extensively in the UK and Europe either as a solo artist, or as a member of a musical ensemble.

Enjoy the show, me hearties! Aaaarr!

Synopsis

Set sail for laughter and adventure in Alan Frayn's pantomime adaptation based on Robert Louis Stevenson's classic tale Treasure Island. Watch Jim Hawkins, his mother Rosie Bloom, and love interest Penny discover Captain Flint's treasure map and sail with the Squire, Penny's father, to claim the fortune. But with Long John Silver and his pirates scheming, their adventure turns into a lively mix of songs, slapstick, and swashbuckling fun - until good triumphs over villainy.

Come join the adventure on board The Golden Venture

Bucket Collection

At the end of each performance, we hold a bucket collection in support of a nominated charity.

For our recent production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, we were proud to support The Brighton Retired Greyhound Trust, raising an incredible £317.24. Thank you to everyone who contributed!

The charity we will be supporting this time will be The British Heart Foundation. We have chosen this charity as it holds a special place in one of our cast member's hearts. Earlier this year, our 'Spirit of the Sea' Natalie lost her father Morris to heart disease.

Donations to the British Heart Foundation play a vital role in supporting the lifesaving research into heart and circulatory diseases each year.
